

FRANCESCA DE MARON

Study Coordinator

ABOUT ME

I am an approachable and friendly person; in fact, during my frequent relocations abroad since I was a girl, I learned to adapt and communicate with different peoples and cultures. I have flexibility and work well in team as well as alone and I am able to negotiate.

I am curious, receptive and willing to learn with problem solving know how.

I am organized and practical with keen attention to details and particular focus on results.
